

Catering Manager / Pizza Chef

Full or part time

£27,000 per year pro rata

Exciting opportunity to manage our wood-fired pizza business, heading up our friendly team of staff in street food locations, corporate settings, private celebrations and public events.

The varied role includes:

- Pre-event food and facilities preparation
- Driving of our high-end catering van to event locations
- Preparing and cooking pizza in our professional wood-fired pizza oven
- Managing our friendly team of catering staff
- Providing an excellent level customer service
- The opportunity to help grow the business providing the potential for an exciting and rewarding career

We are looking for an enthusiastic, dedicated and reliable individual for this important role where you will get out what you put in! Must work well as part of a team and be able to provide excellent customer service.

Experience as a pizza chef is not essential as full training will be given. Full driving licence required.

Potential for the position to be full time or part time (both will include weekend and evening work).

Benefits:

- Holiday and pension provided
- Potential for flexible hours
- Level 3 Food Hygiene training course provided
- Free pizza provided during shifts
- Opportunity for bonus pay scheme

Please note; the salary of £27,000 is pro rata and based on working 40 hours per week. If part time hours are worked, the salary will be adjusted accordingly

Enquire at info@wood-oven.co.uk or 07851 246 573